THE HERALD is in receipt of a note from Mrs. F. A. Lancaster, who for a number of years lived at Santa Mafia, enclosing a draft and saying to let the paper still come. Mrs. Lancaster is now residing at Wells, Texas.

The delegates appointed by the Mayor to attend the Intercoastal Waterways Convention at Houston are requested to meet at City Hall tonight to receive their credentials and perfect arrangements for the journey. The City of Houston is making preparations to entertain the delegation in royal style.

Electricians are at work wiring houses and stores in various sections of the city. Many people will leave the work of wiring until the last minute and then they will have to wait. It is better to have the work done now or rather place the order now, so that the work may be done as soon as the workmen can get to it.

The police entertained but one solitary wanderer from the paths of the righteous last night and he was brought before His Honor, Mayor Combe, this morning. The name of the prisoner was Juan Villeneuve, and he looked sorry and felt keenly the position his adiction to strong drink had placed him. His honor gave him some good advice and admonished him to be more careful in future.

The farmers at La Gloria are in high spirits at the splendid prospects before them for the crops of this winter. Frank Champion, the genial city secretary, returned from that section yesterday and he reports that the farmers there are doing big things. He says that during the past summer, the section where he has always made a stamping ground on his annual hunting trips is now under cultivation.
Magnificent crops of sorghum are growing, and fig orchards are scattered around everywhere. The farmers have roasting ears and all kinds of early vegetables. Cabbage is ready to be set out, and the onion seed beds are an inspiration to any editor in the valley of the Rio Grande. Snap beans are ready for market, and tomatoes, okra and red pepper are all that could be desired.

For Sale at a Bargain.

Two tracts of first class agricultural land containing two hundred

The Celebrated Russian

Novelist, Turgeneff.

The celebrated Russian novelist, Turgeneff, tells a touching incident from his own life, which awakened in him sentiments that have colored all his writings.

When Turgeneff was a boy of ten his father took him out one day bird shooting. As they tramped across the brown stubble a golden pheasant rose with a low whirr from the ground at his feet, and, with the joy of a sportsman, he raised his gun and fired, wild with excitement, when the creature fell fluttering at his side. Life was ebbing fast, but the instinct of the mother was stronger than death itself, and with a feeble flutter of her wings the mother bird reached the nest where her young brood were huddled, unconscious of danger. Then, with such a look of pleading and reproach that his heart stood still at the ruin he had wrought (and never to his dying did he forget the feeling of guilt that came to him in that moment), the little brown head toppled over, and only the dead body of the mother shielded her nestlings.

"Father, father!" he cried, "what have I done?" as he turned his horror-stricken face to his father. But not to his father's eye had this little tragedy been enacted, and he said: "Well done, my son; that was well done for your first shot. You will soon be a fine sportsman."

"Never, father; never again shall I destroy any living creature. If that is sport I will have none of it.
Life is more beautiful to me than death, and since I cannot give life, I will not take it."—Our Dumb Animals.

An Irishman who had begun to practice photography, went into a shop to buy a small bottle in which to mix some of his solutions. Seeing one he wanted, he asked the chemist how much it would be.

"Well," said the chemist, "it will be twopence as it is, but if you want anything in it I will not charge you for the bottle."

"Then," said Pat, "put a cork in it."

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.

There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound and imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Onre. Send for circulars free.

YOU WANT THE BEST

Your Physician aims to put all his knowledge, experience and skill into the prescription he writes. It is an order for a combination of remedies which your case requires. He cannot rely on the result unless the ingredients are properly compounded.

Be fair to your doctor and to yourself by bringing your prescriptions here. They'll be compounded only by registered pharmacists, who are aided by the largest stock of drugs in this part of the state. Everything of the finest quality that money can buy or experience can select.
